

Save the Date*

Hiawatha Elementary is offering a

FREE parent workshop!

Date: January 24, 2012 (Tuesday)

Time: 7:00pm - 8:00pm

Location: Hiawatha Gymnasium

Topic:

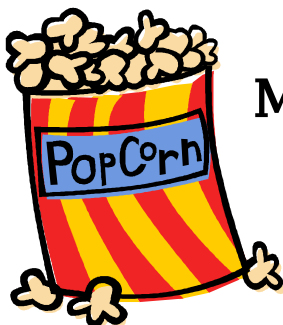

Every day, our children are exposed to movies and books. How can we make sure that the positive messages in these resources are received?

This workshop will provide parents with a list and preview of excellent movies and books to use with their children (K-6).

Additionally, parents will receive activities and other ideas that go with their resource list. These activities will be demonstrated during the workshop.

Prizes:

All participants will be entered in a raffle for prizes, which include the movies and books discussed during the workshop!

More details (and RSVP) to come!

*Light refreshments provided

*Childcare NOT provided